ANTI-GAMBLING BILLS PASSED IN ASSEMBLY BY BIG MAJORITIES

Gov. Hughes Strongly Backed in His Crusade, and Measures Making Race Track Betting a Felony Go Through With a Whoop.

(Special to The Evening World.)

ALBANY, March 26.—The Assembly this afternoon after two hours one all of bitter debate fulfilled expectations by passing, by an overwhelming majority, the bills of Assemblyman Hart, designed to abolish the legal protection of gambling at race tracks in this State, in accordance with the recommendation of Gov. Hughes in his second annual message to

The first of the bills, that to eliminate the discrimination which has virtually legalized gambling within race track inclosures while it is a felony elsewhere, was passed after a number of amendments were defeated by a large majority.

The final vote was 126 to 9, those who voted to defeat the measure my friends. being Cuvillier, Graubard, McCue and Oliver, of New York; Donnelly, Fay, Geoghegan, Schutta, of Kings, all Democrats; T. R. Staley, of

The other race track gambling bill, amending the penal code by making it a felony to bet on races, was immediately called up and passed without debate by a vote of 126 to 7. McCue and Staley on this roll

During the debate on the first bill amendements were offered to make it take effect Sept. 1, Oct. 1 and Dec. 31; to provide for payment of wagers out of general fund made up through increased admission fees; to provide an alternative penalty of $250, whereas the bills now prescribe imprisonment only as recommended by Gov. Hughes. Assemblyman Oliver (Democrat, of New York), led off the attack, speaking first in support of his amendment deferring the taking effect of the bills until Dec. 31. He took the view that it was proposed to confiscate property of men who had made large investments under the protection of "Republican legislation," and that they should therefore be given time in which to dispose of their investments.

Assemblyman McCue (Democrat, New York) took a similar position, adding that the proposed legislation would throw thousands of men out of employ- French, at Harbor View, Newport. ment. Young Gilbert said that he and his chum had been planning for six months to take a trip across the country, and yesterday, instead of going to school, they sneaked into an empty box car.

for the place. Shaw Wins on Smoker.

Pantoufie lost the opening scramb e imply because of the superior riding of Willie Shaw on Smoker over the efforts or McDaniel. At the sixteenth pole Pantoufle was in front and apparently winning easily, when McDaniel seemed to go to pieces, allowing Shaw to get Smoker, the favorite, up in time to beat Pantluffe half a length. There was a tremendous play on Sugar Pine in this race, his price going from 10 to 1 to 7 to 2 in a nurry. He had been wired to New York as a "good thing." Sugar Pine was run into the ground by Smoker in the first half mile. McDaniel lay third with Pantoufle, but brought her up on the stretch turn and was in frint to the stretch. The books won to the race because of the small play on the favorite.

Spencer Wells In a Gallop. Spencer Wells in a Gallop.

Spencer Wells ran right up to the form he showed in his last start by winning the youngsters' race in a gailop from Nutmeg, a gray filly belonging to Jimmy MoLaughlin. Jack Glenn got the third money in the last few strides. This was a great betting race. Spencer Wells was always favorite, but there was a big play by Sol Lichtenstein and others of the wise gentry on Sir Cannon across the board. Tony S. also came in for some play. Tony S. was away in front, but in the first eignth the favorite overhauled him. Nutmeg, off well, stayed right with the leaders to the end and ran a very good race. Tony S. talled off some but should improve some next time out.
